

10,000 BC
12,000 yrs ago

By genetic evidence, the Amerindian originated as hunter-gatherers from Asia, and although the Bering Strait was flooded about 12,000 yrs ago, assertive newcomers could have walked in from Alaska or arrived by boat.

10,000 BC \rightarrow 9,000 BC

Colder Climate

10,000 BC → 3000 BC

MESOLITHIC PERIOD

10,000 BC

Semi-permanent agricultural settlements in Old World.

10,000 BC

Smithsonian Timeline
Pg 65

Found at GROTTÉ DU TAIL in France, a piece of bone about 4 in. long, may be oldest known solar Cal. Each of the more than 1000 marks engraved on it may represent a day

410,000 BC

Zero was discovered by HINDU priests

10,000 BC

In America, by 10,000 BC most of the taming animal life (including horses) had disappeared.

Late Palaeolithic man with his greatly expanded population, played a major part in this process.

10,000 B.C.

most of the taming animal life (including horses) had disappeared from the Americas

12,000 yrs ago 10,000 BE

Ice free corridor opened through Canada, the hunters from Siberia advanced into the rich gamelands of the American plains & as game became depleted moved through isthmus of Panama into South America

10,000 BC → 6000 BC

(Demont)
Between 10,000 & 6000 BC a neolithic culture appeared in Italy: a long-headed race called by ancient tradition Liguri and Sicili fashioned rude pottery with linear ornament, made tools and weapons of polished stone, domesticated animals, hunted and fished, and buried their dead. Some lived in caves, others in round huts of wattu and lamb

10,000 BC

Wolves tamed as dogs.

12,000 yrs ago = 10,000 BC

The wolf was tamed as THE dog, and showed extreme genetic plasticity, producing varieties from Great Danes to toy poodles

12,000 yrs ago - 10,000 BCE

ALLERÖD warm spell

12,000 yrs ago = 10,000 BC

Wolves were domesticated as dogs.

A dog-like jaw with crowded teeth suggestive of domestication and about 12,000 yrs old turned up in PALÆGAWRA cave, Iraq

10,000 B.C. (12,000 yrs ago)

The big-game hunting way of life was doomed.

The ice caps were retreating (and they still are 1-12-91)
the seas rose - some 150 ft